This Just In-

Welcome Pride Month

News

IT'S TIME TO RECOGNIZE ANOTHER WELL KNOWN COMMUNITY. LGBTQ+

The fantastic thing about streaming (or content creation in general) is the fact that ANY thing can be content. Especially with the fact that the digital age allows us ALL to be connected and be in the know. Another fantastic thing about streaming is that you can be yourself, and trust me, when it comes to the LGBTQ community, they don't let anything stand in their way.

Many platforms are very supportive when it comes to holidays or events, and Pride Month definitely gets a lot of attention, whether it's having contests for PRIDE, changing the colors of their logos, or having a showcase for streamers of the respective community.

Live Me is actually having a contest and shows based on different LGBTQ streamers. They (Live Me) are calling this '#PrideME'.

One of the featured streamers during this

WHAT A FEW OTHERS HAD TO SAY...

"I love how people are able to express themselves; plus it's my birthday month!"

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE PART OF PRIDE MONTH?

"The recognition, but I feel that it is becoming a bit too commercialized. Seems like businesses are just trying to make money at this point."

segment on Live Me is named Shakie. Live Me asked users to share their coming out stories and this is what Shakie had to say:

"I was almost just kind of forced; I always knew who I was and my mom- She knew because she was like 'Even as a baby, I was a Diva'.".

What is your favorite part of Pride Month?

"We love that people accept people; and we're not just talking about sexuality."

W.D.Y.T? What Do You Think?

IS STREAMING REALLY STREAMING ANYMORE...?

WHAT A FEW OTHERS HAD TO SAY...

"No. It use to be fun and now it seem that people are just here for the money."
-Papi_Loccian, MeetMe

"I feel like there has been a change in the way that things are done. There are so many things set up just for people to make a profit."
-Leo_NotLion, MeetMe

THIS HAS BEEN A LONG TIME COMING

Social Media has ALWAYS been something to be into, from the early days of Myspace, to the crazy days of Vine, and even now with the never stopping TikTok. When Live Streaming became main stream, there were people who just tested the waters and others who took it and ran. But roughly 15 years since it's true creation, are things different...?

There is nothing wrong with change, and in 2020, live streaming platforms saw way more users. Understandably so, when COVID was hindering our ability to be social, people took to the internet to get over their boredom, especially since you can make money on these streaming platforms, and for most people, that was something for the better... or was it..?

Overall, it seems that there is much more difficulty when it comes to streaming today in 2022. For one, EVERYONE seems to be on these platforms, which means that- similar to YouTube- most of everything content wise has been done. Now, this doesn't mean that one can't be different with their content, but this leads me into my second point.

For two, viewers are "Stuck"- for lack of better word- on a few various types of content, which actually lead to one main thing. You see it with just about everything today from mobile game ads to commercials... And even though it's a great thing for marketing, Sex Sells. These platforms are full of gorgeous women who use their good looks and cough amenities to gain diamonds. In fact, "Help me reach my diamond goal" seems to be the most common title along with the bikini and short shorts pictures. Because that content seems to get the most attention, this makes some content creators feel like that have to turn to the dark side and do the same just to fit in. It's not fair to those who have actual streaming content, and these platforms don't do much about it. It seems that they focus on these specific content creators and even though they have rules and policies in place, they let things slide as if they are picking favorites. There's so much that can be said, but I don't have much space left. Want to be a part of this conversation? Become a Member and check out my Blogs and let me know how you feel about this topic. Doesn't matter which platform you want to talk about.

Streams. Do you want to release any more music or EPs??

"Really good question. I don't know if my heart is into music anymore. I still have a passion for it; maybe one day who knows, I'll make a song. But in the meantime, my main focus is enjoying what I'm doing right now."

What do you think about the future of celebrities buying social media platforms?

"I think it would be a bit of a challenge. You'd have to pay attention to a whole lot of stuff so they would be paying others to work on all that stuff. I don't find it benefiting anyone."

If you were an animal, which one would you be a why?

"My goal is to not let that little voice in my head overpower me. I definitely want to hit Twitch Partnership by the end of December."

What is your best piece of advice for those who are looking to get into game streaming?

"I would say go for it. If you see that you have the time and commitment and want to do it, then do it. It's very competitive, but have fun!"

Thanks again to ALEDream!

ALEDream- GAME ON!

"I would be an owl because Owls are my favorite animal. I love owls because they stand for wisdom and they are gorgeous creatures."

SOME TIPS TO HELP YOU BECOME A BETTER STREAMER!

DID YOU KNOW THIS AMAZING FACT?

The term "Lifecasting" was popularized by Justin Kan, a co founder of Justin.tv.

THIS MONTH'S TIP: HOW TO PICK CONTENT

Today, remote or online jobs seem like the way to go. Most live streaming platforms gained thousands, if not HUNDREDS of thousands of users during the 2020 Pandemic because it seemed to be a safe way to be social and still make a salary. However, how do you pick content so you CAN stream?

Picking content to stream is actually a lot easier than most people make it out to be. First, understand that not everyone is going to like your content, and that's okay; we all like different things. Next, grab a piece of paper and a pencil and write down ten things that you are interested in. Could be anything from Games, to books, to celebrities. Of these things on this list, which do you know the most about? Bingo! You now have a place to start as far as content.

When you stream, talk about these things that interest you when viewers come in and within some time you will find others who have similar interests as you.

Now, if there are any other content creators that you like or watch that have similar interests as you, write down a few things about those content creators that made you interested in watching them. Use those ideas to mold your own stream persona.

With a membership, you will have access to video lessons and 1-on-1 Sessions where you can talk to someone about live streaming. Check out our Memberships Here.
